Special Called Council Meeting

The Nauvoo Town Council met for a Special Called Council Meeting on November 9, 2026 at 10:00 a.m. at the Nauvoo Town Hall. Mayor Christian Dill in the chair and clerk Nicole Garner acting as recording secretary. Mayor Dill called the meeting to order at 10:00 a.m. The following council members were present upon roll call: Deborah Barton, Christian Dill, Denice Perry, and Melinda Wills. Council member Olivia Allbritton was absent. Visitor present was Keith Sizemore.

Mayor Dill presented information regarding the proposed First Annual Nauvoo Christmas Tree Festival, an event intended to promote community engagement, local participation, and holiday spirit throughout the Town of Nauvoo. Discussion was held regarding the festival's organization, including inviting businesses, churches, civic organizations, community groups, and residents to participate by sponsoring and decorating Christmas trees for public display. The town would purchase the trees and stands. Mayor Dill is to look into purchasing trees from the local Christmas tree farm, Pinetucky Farm. Families and individuals would pay $40 and business would pay $60. The Town itself will purchase a larger tree to be placed in the center of the display. Mayor Dill has spoken to Alabama Power to obtain power at the location for the festival and for future events and displays. The festival will take place on the vacant lot in front of town hall. Following discussion, Councilmember Wills moved to approve the First Annual Nauvoo Christmas Tree Festival and details that were discussed. Councilmember Barton seconded the motion. Upon a voice vote, all voted aye, and the motion carried.

Mayor Dill reminded the Council and those in attendance that the Regular Council Meeting scheduled for November 20, 2026, had been rescheduled to November 16, 2026, at 1:30 pm.

Barton moved to adjourn the meeting with Wills seconding the motion. All were in favor and the meeting adjourned at 10:13 a.m.
